

Welcome to the next LARRI research networking meeting:

Theme: Securing land rights through tenure reforms?

When: 17th of April 2013, 13.15 – 15.00

Where: Room D31 at School of Business, Economics and Law,
(Handelshögskolan), Vasagatan 1 in Gothenburg

Who: All interested in the theme are welcome to attend the meeting!

The aim with the LARRI research networking meetings is to informally meet and discuss ongoing and planned research on different land related topics and to promote collaboration between researchers and between researchers and students from different disciplines. In addition this research networking meeting will provide an opportunity to discuss how research on the theme can be used in policy and practice to enhance tenure security for rural poor in the context of increased demand for land and related resources.

Program:

The meeting will start with short presentations on the topics below, thereafter a discussion on the overall theme for the meeting will be facilitated by the LARRI coordinator Maria Ölund.

- Jeannette Bayisenge: "Land tenure reform: A tool for ensuring land rights to women? Experiences from the administration of the land registration and titling in Rwanda."
- Robin Biddulph: "Do land titling programmes avoid areas where there is tenure insecurity? And other reflections from the Cambodian case."
- Lasse Krantz: "Securing Land Rights in a Context of Increasing External Demand for Land. The case of Mozambique."
- Gunnar Köhlin: "Experiences from the land registration and certification programme in the Amhara region of Ethiopia."

About LARRI:

LARRI (Land Rights Research Initiative) is a platform for discussion, exchange of ideas and information as well as for promoting collaboration among researchers and students and others interested in land rights issues in the context of global change. The LARRI initiative is hosted by GCGD - Gothenburg Centre of Globalization and Development at Gothenburg University and led by Lasse Krantz. For more information about LARRI, our events or to sign up for our newsletter please contact the LARRI project coordinator Maria Ölund (maria.olund@gu.se) or follow LARRI on Facebook (www.facebook.com/LandRightsResearchInitiative).
